El Moyra

The conscious human self will always stumble but stumbling on your path does not mean that you do not flow effortlessly upon the river of attainment at the same time.

El Moyra

“The more that you turn your face toward the attainment of mastery and all other hopes and wishes for the spiritual self, a mirror then is always set before you until such time as what you see as the goal and what is reflected in the mirror, are as one.”

“The level of attainment is self defined. What is within the universe of yourself is reflected in this mirror. It is not to become perfect, that is not the goal. It is not to be free of all fault, for truly that is irrelevant as what can be mined from within is far beyond such notions as this.”

El Moyra

There is a depth that is so incredible within the human aspect and you are quite capable of living out your daily human lives yet coming into mastery. Human mastery is different to mastery when not in form, but it is mastery nonetheless. It is mastery within a framework.

“The gentleness of spirit can bring a space necessary to allow attainment to pour in and heaviness to flow out. Kindness arrives from the heart of God. Kindness to self – what a wonderful gift. When you are kind to yourself, you nourish your soul, for you are your soul's invention. How can you put in place a gentleness that lasts, yet allows for dynamic action when needed? It is time to breathe, my friends. You have all the time in the world in one sense and each breath is God-given, arriving from the Living Light. Take time to just ‘be’, not with any technique nor with spiritual practice. To simply take a breath and be mindful of it, knowing from where it comes, brings great gentleness.”

“What is energy but consciousness in motion? And as the essence of you moves away from separation and comes into the outer glow of Oneness there is a quickening felt – an anticipation, a yearning to become whole, to rejoin, to return to something that is truly exhilarating and astonishingly empowering. You are a trickle of water seeking out the ocean . . .”

Akhnaton

“Do you know, a master need do nothing, have no special capacities or great strengths. A spiritual master need only be the child of God that they are. They simply take ownership of this, for as a child of God are not the traits of the parent inbuilt?”

“Service is doing, mastery is being and the two can combine spectacularly. Sometimes masters choose to just ‘be’. Sometimes masters choose to channel this ‘being’ into the direction of service. Either way, to wish to come into one's mastery for the self alone is the surest way to latch the door.”

Akhnaton

To see through the eyes of a master means to pause upon your path. You then turn to face those who come behind you, to encourage them and be the light by which the path may be found.

AKHNATON

Upon your world there are living avatars who simply walk amongst your people. Sometimes the word gets around and great crowds begin to build and ashrams are built and so on. Yet, for the master little changes – they simply walk amongst you and 'be'.

AKHNATON

There is great excitement and anticipation with every step upon your path. This is how it should be, for it is delightful to be you; to be alive, expanded and open spiritually. Yet, greater still is the path itself than its destination.

“I simply come this day to say, begin to place at the forefront of your consciousness the goal as being something other than what pleases you, for then the gateways are always open. If you set aside your own ambitions spiritually, to focus upon the giving to others then you will find that as you stand still, your location changes and you are moved far beyond the point where you did begin. That is Divinity for you. It is the sign of a great avatar and one who is spiritually mature to discard ambition. Many of your great texts have made this known. Yet, it does not mean that you cease to be able to achieve all that you would hope to. It no longer becomes the motivation and therefore is not limited to your desire, rather the greater desire of God can manifest through you. It will always be vastly superior and more fulfilling. Within such a climate all needs are attended to by Divinity.”

Kuan Yin

I am always at your service and I send outward from me, my radiance, love, wisdom, blessings and the joy of knowing that Divinity moves through me.

“It is time to begin to contemplate service. As mastery begins to integrate into human your consciousness it is timely to remember that 'mastery' is but a term for those who take upon themselves a great responsibility in service. So then, it could be timely if you wish it, to initiate directions of service. For some it will be a continuation but perhaps a new level of experience, capacities, insights, skills and opportunities. For others, it may be new directions entirely – it is what you 'call in'. As you become more aligned with the higher aspects of self, so it is, that higher guidance will come and this is to be welcomed. It is exciting, yet as with anything within your physical realm you must initiate it.”

Kuan Yin

You are perfect and all that is human of you, is perfect. There is no judgement, simply a guiding hand at this time from one to another who is part of this wonderful journey called life.

“You must place your foot forward for the path to become known and open before you. For, the path does not exist until you place your foot forward. Spirit operates spontaneously within the Eternal Now which is ever-changing. As such, what is to be put in place before you is only ever put in place when it is absolutely timely. The next step then, that you take upon the path after the first step, reveals itself only as that step is being taken and so on. In this way we allow for the spontaneity of existence, Creation and Divine Thought and guidance.

This is why you must not place too much store upon the future or future pathways, for they are not formed and the Divine Mind will not give you what is not in the moment. Once you begin to take that step into either a greater arena of service or a different direction, then Divinity will make the path smooth and what a blossoming it shall be.”

“One of the purposes of my communication is to hopefully show you that as you journey to a new spiritual experience, by its very nature it becomes more about what you give than what you receive. The journey then becomes more service focused. For, to pursue the experience for the benefit of yourself alone would counter any such movement forward.”

Pebbles of Service

There once was a beautiful visualisation given to this channel from the master you call Jesus, who we know as Sananda. I draw from this. I stand before each and I hold my hand before you. You extend yours outward to receive. Into the palm of your hand I place pebbles. Ordinary pebbles. They shall differ for each. Some of you may have many, some but a few. The number is inconsequential in terms of relevance and comparison. Once upon a time, Jesus placed into the hands of his disciples pebbles gathered from the earth where he sat. They are given with a blessing yet the blessing is not for you. The blessing is for the people that each of these pebbles represents. They are the ones who shall cross your path for you to serve. The blessing placed upon them is that they shall be blessed by your radiance and interaction with them and by Divinity who will breathe through you. So, how beautiful are these simple, blessed pebbles! Perhaps you may be feeling unworthy but I say to you, these symbolic pebbles are blessed by the 'blessing' that is you.

Everyone in existence within Creation is a blessing, in one way or another, to someone, to something and even to a time and place. As ones who are soon to walk in mastery I ask: 'Do you accept these pebbles?' Pay no heed to the number. To bless one or to bless a thousand holds the same energy and significance. When those in human consciousness pass over, their soul only recognises love and service as the perspective on the life they have led. One act of kindness is equal to a hundred acts of kindness, for it is not in the opportunity and its frequency but rather, it is whether the opportunity has been taken.

Sanat Kumara

In the first moment held within the Presence of Christ Consciousness much passed between you and you were guided, not in words, but in a way unspeakably beautiful.

Summary

- ◆ When you seek mastery, a mirror is set before you until such time as the goal and reflection are one and the same.

- ◆ You are not expected to be perfect as mastery can form a parallel pathway alongside your daily human life. As such, you can stumble yet still have spiritual attainment.

- ◆ You are encouraged to be kind and gentle with yourself as this nourishes your soul.

- ◆ A spiritual master need only acknowledge and allow themselves to be the child of God that they are. This is possible for you.

- ◆ To wish to come into mastery for yourself alone will block the way.

- ◆ To truly move forward on your spiritual path you must stand still to help others.

- ◆ When you release your own spiritual ambitions to focus on others, Divinity moves you forward on your path, far beyond where you paused to be in service.

- ◆ In this way, the greater desire of God can work through you.

- ◆ Kuan Yin encourages you to initiate service within your life.

- ◆ Mastery simply means taking on a greater responsibility in service.

- ◆ Tune into your higher self for guidance regarding your service.

- ◆ Spirit operates spontaneously within the Eternal Now and only brings you what is in the moment.

- ◆ As such, the next step on your spiritual path only appears when you are ready.

Who are the Ascended Masters?

The Ascended Masters are beings of pure love and light that reside within the higher dimensions of Spirit. As such, they do not have form though are often depicted in paintings to make it easier for us to identify with them.

They exist in a dimension where the primary focus is service. Humanity has the blessing of these beings bringing their service to us. It is their ongoing joy to assist us on our path back to the Divine.

You can call upon the Ascended Masters to be present with you in meditation.

Who is SOLTEC?

Soltec is an Australian channel and spiritual teacher with over 20 years experience and regularly facilitates meditation groups and seminars. He has an intimate connection with the Ascended Masters which he gladly shares with others, assisting them to find their own unique relationship with these divine beings.

What is the White Star Temple?

The White Star Temple is an inter-dimensional 'Temple', which isn't a literal temple but rather, is an 'energy pattern' where the Ascended Masters meet with us. This pattern sits outside of the space-time continuum. As such, anyone can access the Temple at the same time as everyone else and in any location, as time and space are irrelevant. While in the White Star Temple each will hear and receive energies and understanding relevant to them.

The White Star Temple stands for all 'time' and has its own consciousness which evolves as we evolve. You too can participate in the Temple. You need only intend that this be so or you can listen to Soltec's recordings while in meditation and your consciousness will join with the White Star Temple.

Soltec makes available many audio recordings received from the Ascended Masters as well as printed books featuring the Temple wisdom. Plus, he offers a free Temple podcast for you to subscribe to and enjoy.
